

Day 2: Dan and I walk toward the ship. I don't know where we are. Dan explains that if deemed worthy
we will be allowed
to board.

Dan boards but I do not. I will have to wait for the next
ship. It is unclear
when that will be.

Day 6: We live in a small village. There
are living quarters,
a forest and a
farm, where we grow
our own food. There is nothing else.

Day 36:

I have fallen in love
with a cat-clown named Gertie. ♡

Day 81: People talk about when the next ship will come and how to become worthy of boarding. Some think it's about eating a healthy diet.

Day 100. Maybe it never comes.

I guess its not
such a terrible place
to wait.
